- 25X1C 1. [REDACTED] an unannounced trial mobilization occurred in the Ruse area including the classes from 1924 through 1928. Officers from the Class of 1915 were also included. Horses, wagons and other equipment from the surrounding area were requisitioned.
2. All men and equipment were assembled and moved to an unidentified reserve area for one day, but no military maneuvers were undertaken. The men were dispersed later the same day.
3. Informant was unable to state whether this mobilization was national or confined only to the Ruse area, but indicated it was only a dry run and not serious.
